- Reconnect with your Self and your unique passions
- Grow your capacity for love and connection
- Unlock hidden potentials for success and fulfillment

This Healing Circle will provide a safe and supportive constellation container in which to explore personal issues such as intimacy & closeness, communication & connection and attachment & belonging, among many others. Bring with you your current life challenges and your curiosity about what might be ready to bloom within you ...

A five-week series meeting on April 2nd, 9th, 16th, 23rd & 30th, this Healing Circle is open to anyone interested in deepening his or her relationship to love, connection and intimacy. All varieties of issue are welcome. Ideally, participants commit to attend all 5 sessions.

Relational Constellations help to reveal and resolve hidden systemic patterns, thus allowing us to create the life we desire. By using representatives from our participant circle, we give voice to the unseen entanglements that influence the way we connect to our Selves, to our dreams and to each other.
